To Whom It May Concern:

Artist Erich Preis of Huntington has been donating artwork since the tragic 9/11 occurred in memory of his friend, Officer Michael Noeth of the US Navy, who was killed in the Pentagon.

The money he raises helps homeless Long Island Veterans. I am the Liaison to the Veterans of Huntington and the Huntington Advisory Board. We have raffled off several pieces that Erich created. In 2007 Erich's paintings of Montauk Light House and Mustangs on Clinton Avenue, raised a total of $2000. The proceeds went to assisting the homeless Veterans by providing them with food and clothing for the winter months.

Erich Preis is dedicated to the Homeless Veterans of his community by selling raffle tickets for his paintings and sketching portraits in pastels for the cause. He is respected by all and would be an asset to anyone who employs his services.

Respectfully,

Leonard Totoro
Chairman
Huntington Advisory Board
